CODE OF ETHICS - Any violation reflects on all of us.

1. Know and obey all government and club laws, rules and regulations pertaining to mining.
2. The Wyoming Prospector's Association is a non-profit volunteer organization and we count on the general membership for volunteers to work on committees and assist in club projects.
3. The Wyoming Prospector's Association is a family-oriented club and public drunkenness, profanity, or other obnoxious behavior is prohibited while prospecting and at all club functions.
4. Members will observe all Forest Service, B.L.M., US Corps of Engineers, state, and private regulations and all property rules concerning fires, tree cutting, littering, prospecting, and mining.
5. Always obtain permits in advance of prospecting on Public Lands where they may be required.
6. All of our officers, committee chairmen, and committee members are volunteers. These people do their best to perform their tasks in an efficient manner. Any club member who disrespects or harasses any club officer, member, or guest may have his/her membership revoked.
7. Be courteous to all club members. No member shall threaten any other member in any way. Any grievances will be made in writing and sent to the president.
8. All photographs or videos submitted to WPA for club use and for display on WPA website or other WPA displays become property of WPA upon submission.
